

HISTORY

Royale Recruiter started in 2009, in a office in Springville, Utah, United States Of America with only six dedicated employee. In 2013, we moved to our current office in South Gundurimba, New South Wales, Australia after a group of investors seeing our potential and relentless doggedness assisted with the initial seed capital.

Shortly thereafter, we served our first global client and more. We have been delighting customers ever since, with our growing team of dedicated Talent and Staff Management Mafias, who are relentless in combined passion and service for people.

We currently recruit and engage a distributed workforce in Asia, U.S, U.K and Australia.

In 2014, we registered Royale Recruiter LLC in Ontario, Canada and plan on further expansion in the Asian continent by 2020.
